Meet Herbert and Dorothy Vogel, whose shared passion and commitment defied stereotypes and redefined what it means to be an art collector.
- 8:00 Gift of the Heart
- 8:30 *Secrets of the Dead "Killer Flu" – In 1918, at the tail end of the First World War, a flu pandemic ripped through the world with such speed and virulence that by the end of the following year an estimated 40 million people would be dead -- outstripping by four-fold the number of victims claimed by the war. Where did this particular flu strain come from, and what made it so deadly? This program shows how 85 years later, virologists and epidemiologists the world over are still hunting down the answers to those two critical questions.

7:00 Independent Lens “Copyright Criminals” – This program examines the creative and commercial value of musical sampling, including the related debates over artistic expression, copyright law and, of course, money. The film traces the rise of hip-hop from the urban streets of New York to its current status as a multibillion-dollar industry. For more than 30 years, innovative hip-hop performers and producers have been re-using portions of previously recorded music in new, otherwise original compositions. When lawyers and record companies got involved, what was once referred to as a "borrowed melody" became a "copyright infringement."
